

Guide to Breast Pumps

Hospital Grade Pumps Available to Rent

Medela Symphony Plus Rental Pump: Utilizes computer technology to better mimic baby's sucking patterns for optimum pumping efficiency, comfort and success. This pump is the perfect choice for those moms struggling with milk supply, moms of multiples and working moms. This pump is perfect if you need to pump frequently to maintain or increase your milk supply. This pump is lightweight, has the capacity for single or double pumping and is very efficient. Most women can express their milk in 10-15 minutes.

It is a $86 per month rental or $43 for two weeks plus $50 for the accessory kit.

Double Pumps for Purchase

Medela Pump in Style "Advanced": This pump has a unique 2 phase pumping action that simulates your baby's suck and release pattern. Pump has the capacity for single or double pumping. Great pump for working moms!

This pump comes in either the shoulder bag or backpack style and separate cooler case for storing and transporting your breast milk.

Available here for $269.

Medela Pump in Style Advanced Metro Bag: This pump is the same pump as the Pump in Style Advanced. This comes in an over the shoulder bag with colors in black. The difference is that the motor is in its own carry case that is removable from the bag. The motor takes up a lot less space on a nightstand or office desk. Bag has extra room for extras; lunch bag, diapers, etc.

Available here for $300.

Double Electric Pump Covered By Insurance

Medela's Pump in Style Advanced Pump: This pump has a unique 2 phase pumping action that simulates your baby's suck and release pattern. Pump has the capacity for single or double pumping.

Insurance supplied pump would be covered by insurance.

Ardo Calypso Essentials Pump: It features independent vacuum and cycle adjustment - 64 total settings for maximum comfort and gentleness. Moms report that the Ardo Calypso "feels like baby"! Can be operated with included wall power adapter or with simple AA in case of power outage. It weighs only 1.2lbs for maximum portability.

Insurance supplied pump would be covered by insurance.

Manual Pumps for Purchase

Medela's Harmony Hand Pump: Medela's two-phase expression technology is applied in this very ergonomic and effective manual pump. Sure to be your favorite for occasional use.
